

Unconditional

Patrick Nuo

Can be good - bad lost at the frontier have fun - fell sad I'll always be waitin' here it's not only in your mind never standin' in your way always by your side

let this little light of love shine down on you forever
you are never unforgiven
and you'll always be loved
don't you know
you're my unconditional love
this is unconditional
so unconditional

I hope you are always strong enough to forgive the world its lies don't you cry

sometimes it seems so far away but it's always takin' care that all the pain won't cross your way

and this love will never break
but always by your side
