

Cute Girls

Patrick Stump

Pretty things
Fresh out of their teens
Not ready for the world
In a world of bad dreams
Well, is it self esteem?
Cause you're almost on your knees
Out looking for a good time
But time's not on their side

Tonight, her tights shake a little loose
Feeling woozy, not a floozy
But the booze makes her less choosy
You'll stumble and tumble to new bruises
While you're giving me the blues, yeah yeah yeah, oh

But it's a thin thin line between a good and a bad idea
So I should bite my tongue before I tell you how
I really feel

(Just watch out for those)
Cute girls
Cute girls
Cute girls
Cute girls

Girl, I'm just impressed with your face
Not your dress
Girl, I'm just impressed with your face
Not your dress

You singing along with the same old song
Blasting out a car window
Passing down your boulevard tonight
Under another unforgiving streetlight

But it's a thin thin line between a good and a bad idea
So I should bite my tongue before I tell you how
I really feel

(Just watch out for those)
Cute girls
Cute girls
Cute girls
Cute girls

(Let me hear you say)
Girl, I'm just impressed with your face
Not your dress
Girl, I'm just impressed with your face
Not your dress

Drink, crazy girl
Tip my crown to the world
I knew a big chick and her jeans is tight
Knew that she was black and white
Ain't no time like a livin' that Walking the town with

Oh yeah, your face is so

You better watch it for the cute

Cute girls

Cute girls, cute girls

Cute girls
