

Bright Shiny Lights

Patrick Watson

Oh those bright shinny lights
There shinning so bright
Casting a shadow
On all the simple things you used to own
Casting a shadow
On all the simple things you used to own

Oh those bright shinny lights
There shining so bright
Blinding the simple man
Oh what a sorrowful sight
Blinding the simple man
Oh what a sorrowful sight

Oh those bright shinny lights
There shinning so bright
There casting a shadow
Oh what a sorrowful sight
There casting a shadow
On all the simple things we used to own
There casting a shadow
Oh what a sorrowful sight
