

Just Another Ordinary Day

Patrick Watson

Just another ordinary day
Seven years and the same old life
Dying is hard
I can't bear to stay

Just another ordinary day
Seven years, life crawls away
And dying is hard, I can't bear to stay
Just another ordinary
Just another ordinary day
Morning comes and morning takes
See the wait
Oooh
