

Wooden Arms

Patrick Watson

I wish I'd be in your wooden arms
That swallowed me into a thousand dreams
And help me close my woolen eyes
That weep just like a willow tree

I wish it would be in black and white
But at least I will sleep in your wooden arms tonight
In your wooden arms