Stars In Your Eyes

Patti Austin

On a night so right for love, where a silver moon is shining In the shadow of the willow I fell for you.

Who could write this storyline Who could paint this perfect picture They say love is blind, for us it came as no surprise You and I had stars in our eyes.

Just a tough or knowing glance We had learned to trust each other In the midst of our romance, we held on so tight

If I had my chance again maybe I would see the danger Guess I'd make the same mistakes It's hard to be young and wise when all you see is stars in your eyes

On this night I wait alone from a silver moon I'm minding Like the shadow or the willow I weep for you

People say I'm over you They say times are perfect enough Why do I still long for you with stars in my eyes When I have no tears left to cry Maybe after all love is blind Maybe love is blind
