

Gotta Go Solo

Patti LaBelle

Raindrops on my window seal
Its quiet as a mouse in here
You're somewhere with the girls doing nails
Dinners takeout, no home cooking all year
Ain't no use pretending (no,no)
Cause perfect I know I have not been
But there's gotta be a way to work things out
Twenty years, should remove all doubt

Ronald Isley: If you love me, (I love you) then how could you go Patti Labelle: It's not about the love, its just I've had enough h maybe we need to let it go

Ronald Isley: If you ever loved me, (I love you baby) then how could you leave

Patti Labelle: some songs have gotta end, we're better off as friend iend maybe its time I go solo

I know this is confusing to you
But its been coming for a mighty long time
A woman needs to be loved
Enter too body, soul, and mind
You've been taking me for granted
No surprises, no flowers on rainy days
Now I can keep you just the way you are
But I know some things will never change

Patti Labelle: I can't sing this melody no more, I've sung it for so long Ronald Isley: Is it the verse, the chorus, or the bridge.

(I don't know) just tell me exactly what it is

Patti Labelle: I don't know while we're over troubled waters, I think the show is over
