

Kiss Away The Pain

Patti LaBelle

All the wrong things to be said, we said
We let anger guide the way
I say your at fault
You say I'm selfish
Now the accusations must be paid with
The strain of losing you
Pain of feeling blue
Your hurt and I'm lost
Tell me what are we gonna do?

Please come back and kiss away the pain babe
We can be happy once again
Please come back and kiss away the pain babe
We can make sunshine from the rain

Without you, my life has no music
Rhyme and rhythm cease to be, to be
Close friends tell me that your acting heartsick
Is it all because your missing me, but
The thing is
