

This Word Is All

Patti LaBelle

My life has meaning now since you came
I've been changed in so many ways
You've turned my heart around nothing can bring me down
I'm feeling free and my life's a song

There's no other way to describe
What it is that your kiss does to me
You give good love to me, satisfy all my needs
You make me feel so alive

This word is all, I have to say
I love you in every way
(This word is all)
All that I have and all I can't hold back
With a feeling like that

When you are gone and this feeling comes on
I'm content all alone till you come back home
You are the one for me, I'd give you anything
Just to keep you satisfied

You shared with me so unselfishly
And I'll never take you for granted your heart, oh no
You are the peace of mind that seemed so hard to find
I'll never want to let you go

This word is all, I have to say
I love you in every way
(This word is all)
All that I have and I'll never let go
Cause I'm loving you so

I've been in love before
And you know I really thought that I had it all
'Til I met you and then I knew
I never had the meaning of love 'til I found you, baby baby
'Til I found you, you, you

This word is all, I have to say
I love you in every way
(This word is all)
All that I have and there's no holding back
With this feeling I've, I've got a feeling, oh

This word is all, just hold me, you know me
(This word is all)
And all that I need is you baby
(This word is all)
This word is all

I don't know what to say, baby
(This word is all)
I never knew what I'd miss, baby, oh
(This word is all)
I love you, oh I want to say
(This word is all)

I love you, oh oh, this word is all, oh oh oh, oh
