

When A Woman Loves

Patti LaBelle

You can buy her things
Shiny diamond rings
All the kinds of things
You think she needs from you

You can hold her tight
Promise all the stars in the sky
But that won't get you very far
That won't get you in her heart

Something deep and true
Is what she needs from you

When a woman loves
She loves with everything
She can touch your heart
And steal your soul
But you've got to earn her trust
To feel her touch
To be the one she's loving
When a woman loves

She's got needs inside
That won't be denied
Said, the girl's not satisfied
With just a line from you

Oh, she needs tenderness
All your heart and soul and nothing less
Love that's true, kind and strong
To stand right there
Through right and wrong

Something deep and real
Something her heart can feel

When a woman loves
She loves with everything
She can touch your heart
And steal your soul
But you've got to earn her trust, yeah
To feel her touch
To be the one she's loving
When a woman loves

I need something real from you
Something I can feel from you, baby
Because one thing is true
When a woman

When a woman loves
She loves with everything
She can touch your heart
And steal your soul away
But you've got to earn her trust, yes
To feel her touch
To be the one she's loving

When a woman loves
Oh yeah, yeah, yeah, yes

You've gotta win her trust
To be the one to get her love
