

You Are My Solid Ground

Patti LaBelle

When you're lying tenderly beside me
And I feel your breath so soft against my cheek
All my fears just disappear in darkness
And I know for sure that I could never leave

You are the strength that I've found to see
You lift me up when I'm down, loving me
When I never thought that I'd feel my heart come around
You are my solid ground

I don't need a fairy tale to save me
I've got all the magic I need in your arms
And I won't ever fly away in madness
I'll stay close enough to always feel your warmth

You are the strength that I've found to see
Oh, you lift me up when I'm down, loving me
When I never thought that I'd feel my heart come around
You are my solid ground, yes, you are my solid ground

I'm so in love with you
You're everything faithful and true
And I know, I could touch every star
When you're lifting me and I'm right there where you are

You are the strength that I've found to see
You lift me up when I'm down, loving me
When I never thought that I'd feel my heart come around, boy
You are my, you are my, you are, you are
You are my solid ground

Yes, you are
Yes, you are
