

Wondering

Patti Page

I'm wondering why
I'm so sad and lonely
Since we drifted apart

We laughed and we loved
But we said goodbye
But you're still here
In my heart

The lonely nights
Seem to be haunting me
With memories
Always of you

I'm wondering
Should we have said goodbye
I hope you're wondering too

The lonely nights
Seem to be haunting me
With memories
Always of you

I'm wondering
Should we have said goodbye
I hope you're wondering too
