

One Voice

Patti Smith

In the garden of consciousness
Lies in fertile mind, the dormant seed
Blooming into charity
Conscience breathes a sigh of relief

Confessions of sleep
Unfolding peace

Moved by love to serve
We celebrate all merit in life

Confessions of sleep
The awakening seed
As we extend
According to need

And you will hear the call
All action great and small
Received joyfully

All action great and small
Received joyfully

Heaven abounds
Let love resound

Charity, charity
And you will hear the call
All action great and small
Received joyfully

If he be mute
Give him a bell
If he be blind, an eye
If he be down, a hand

Lift up your voice
Lift up your voice

Give of your mind, one mind
Give of your heart, one heart
Give of your voice, one voice
