Perfect White Girls

Patty Griffin

Heaped from a snowy white mountain Slipped down a snowy white hill Came from a water fountain Water was sweet until Sunshine on a shiny ocean Sunshine on a shiny bay I opened a tiny shutter and Sunshine blowing me away And I don't know a thing about perfect white girls that wear gold and I'm very busy I'm very very busy baby I'm very very busy becoming invisible Why would you want Why would you want to disappear School is a women Ask any woman that's sitting here And I don't a thing Don't know a thing about perfect white girls that wear gold and If you kiss their asses long enough They might let you kiss their asses If you kiss their asses long enough They might let you kiss their asses So here I come in a river my hips Here I come with my big red lips Hidden now a newfound friend Cause I'm never going back again And I don't a thing Don't know a thing Don't know a thing Don't know a thing Don't know a thing Know a thing La la la la la la la...
