

You Don't Get No More

Patty Loveless

Well

I gave you my heart and what did you do
You dragged it around and you broke it in two
You don't get no more
You don't get no more
When you use up my heart
You don't get no more no more

Well

It's a "Honey, but this"
And "Honey but that"
When you run out of butts
That's the end of that
You don't get no more
You don't get no more
When you run out of butts
You don't get no more no more

You only got one soul and that's a fact
You sell it to the devil and you don't get it back
You don't get no more
You don't get no more
When you sell your soul
You don't get no more no more

Either get off or get on down the line
Your callin' card is runnin' out of time

Well

When your friends are all gone
And the money runs low
And your only true love is a high-dollar hope
You don't get no more
You don't get no more
When your gold is gone
You don't get no more no more
No more

When I stop singing it's the end of the song
When you stop listnin' it's time to move on
You don't get no more
You don't get no more

When you lost your friends
And you run out of rope,
When you sold your soul
And you're all out of hope,
When you break the only heart that I've got
You don't get no more
No more
Uh-uh
