

How Can Anything Be Beautiful (After You)

Paul Anka

How can anything be beautiful after you?
how can anything be beautiful when we're through?
how can anyone ever hold me?
who can say the things the way you told me?
how can anything be possible after you?
how can anyone be loveable? sad, but true.
how can anyone ever thrill me?
do the things you do the way you thrill me?
baby, i love you. nothing is gonna change my mind. baby,
i love you. nothing is gonna change my mind.
how can anything be possible? sad, but true.
baby, i love you. nothing is gonna change my mind. baby,
i love you. nothing is gonna change my mind...
