When I Stop Loving You

When I stop loving you, baby That'll be the day That'll be the day When I stop loving you, baby That'll be the day That'll be the day

The day the world stops going 'round And today my heartbeat starts to pound When I stop loving you, baby That'll be the day

When you stop loving me, baby That'll be the day When you stop loving me, baby That'll be the day

The day my heart would ache and break The day there'd be no wedding cake When you stop loving me, baby That'll be the day That'll be the day

Yes, I'll stop loving you I'll say that we're through When earth and skies disappear But just as long as there's an earth And as long as there's a sky I'll always love you dear

If you should say goodbye, baby That'll be the day That'll be the day

If you should say goodbye, baby That'll be the day That'll be the day

The day that tear drops from my eyes It fell like raindrops from the skies If you should say goodbye, baby That'll be the day That'll be the day

Yes, I'll stop loving you I'll say that we're through When earth and skies disappear But just as long as there's an earth And as long as there's a sky I'll always love you dear

If you should say goodbye, baby That'll be the day That'll be the day

If you should say goodbye, baby That'll be the day

Paul Anka

That'll be the day

The day that tear drops from my eyes It fell like raindrops from the skies If you should say goodbye, baby That'll be the day That'll be the day That'll be the day That'll be the day
