

A Gift

Paul Brandt

On the other side of the world
there's a little boy or a girl who's never heard about A Gift or of Christmas or even what that is That must have been how it seemed back before that old manger scene back before the world even knew about Jesus and what he would do

It must have been so dark and cold there must have been so little hope Sometimes I wonder where I'd be If no one had sent A Gift to me

But wrapped in mercy, grace and love
A Gift was sent from up above Unconditional and free
That Little Gift changed everything

On the other side of the world
there's a little boy or a girl
Who all because of A Gift Finally knows what Christmas is