

A Love That Strong

Paul Brandt

If love was a river rushin' down to the sea
I'd wanna jump right in to the middle of it
Let it carry me
And pullin' me under and takin' my breath away
Rollin' with the flow wherever it goes
Whatever it takes

I want a love that strong
I want a love that wild
I want to dig that deep
I want to reach that high
One that'll last a whole life long
I want a love that strong

A man and a woman sittin' in a small cafe
They met fifty years ago in those same two chairs
On this very day
He still brings her flowers just to hear that little laugh
She still thinks he's a knight in shining amour
And it's as simple as that

I want a love that strong
I want a love that wild
I want to dig that deep
I want to reach that high
One that'll last a whole life long
I want a love that strong

I want a love that strong
I want a love that wild
I want to dig that deep
I want to reach that high
One that'll last a whole life long
I want a love that strong

I want a love that wild
I want to dig that deep
I want to reach that high
One that'll last a whole life long
I want a love that strong
