

Now

Paul Brandt

I used to try to hold the future in my hands Tried to make tomorrow turn out like I planned And there's no use in thinkin' about yesterday
I can't go back there anyway

It's a "What have you done for me lately? world
We only have today
Then it spins and turns
And forever isn't waiting and time keeps counting down
To Now

Gonna make a move like it's my last stand Gonna draw my line deep in the sand Gonna take my time, give my life to love You can keep the fame and money cause there's never enough

In This a 'What have you done for me lately?' world
we only have today
then it spins and turns
And forever isn't waiting
and time keeps counting down
To Now

Oh, how we spend our moments is how we spend our lives

It's a 'What have you done for me lately?' world
we only have today
then it spins and turns
And forever isn't waiting
and time keeps counting down

'What have you done for me lately?' world
we only have today
then it spins and turns
and time keeps counting down

we only have today
we only have today
we only have today
