

Outside The Frame

Paul Brandt

The shadows move slowly
They climb up the walls
'Til the light hits the metal and glass
It shines through the dust

Revealing the love
In an old black and white photograph
That was before
But it's not anymore

'Cause outside the frame
You're getting on with your life
I wonder if I ever will
'Cause inside my heart

I picture us frozen in time
Just you and I standing still
Now everything's changed
Outside the frame

The look in your eyes
Your hand in mine
And we're both holding on to a dream
I'm still trapped in that moment

Where the sun always shines
And I don't ever want to be free
No, I want to stay
As the light fades away

'Cause outside the frame
You're getting on with your life
I wonder if I ever will
'Cause inside my heart

I picture us frozen in time
Just you and I standing still
Now everything's changed
Outside the frame

Outside the frame
Where you're getting on with your life
And I know that I never will
'Cause inside my heart

I picture us frozen in time
Just you and I standing still
Now everything's changed
Outside the frame

I keep waiting for something to change
But the picture inside stays the same
And the fact of the matter remains
