

Worth

Paul Brandt

When the night falls into the darkness when the moon turns it's back on the sky I'll be there on the east horizon
I'll be there in the nick of time

I'm gonna rise I'm gonna fight keep believin'
I'm gonna prove that you can count on me
I'm running across this battle line and I ain't leavin'
I'd lay down my life
cause that's what you're worth to me
What you're worth to me

I will stand by the word I gave you til you see what a promise means I am your eleventh-hour rescue
I am the one who'll set you free

I'm gonna rise I'm gonna fight keep believin'
I'm gonna prove that you can count on me
I'm running across this battle line and I ain't leavin'
I'd lay down my life
cause that's what you're worth to me
What you're worth to me

yeah ohhh

I'm gonna rise I'm gonna fight ohhh
I'm gonna prove that what you're worth for me

I'm gonna Rise I'm gonna Fight
ohh I'm gonna prove that I'm gonna prove that's what your worth to me
I'm gonna Rise I'm gonna Fight
I'll die for you Cause that's what your worth to me
