

A Little Bit Of Soap

Paul Davis

A little bit of soap
will wash away your lipstick on my face
But a little bit of soap will never never never ever erase The pain in my heart, and my eyes as I go through the lonely years
A little bit of soap
will never wash away my tears

Mmm, a little bit of soap will wash away your powder from my chin
A little bit of soap
will never never never ever begin To take away the hurt that I feel
as I go through the lonely years
A little bit of soap
will never wash away my tears,
mmm, mmm, mmm

Now have you heard when love begins to die it leaves someone to cry night and Day?
Just like a bird, you left your robin's nest and just like all the rest, you flew away

will take away your perfume eventually
But a little bit of soap
will never take away the memory Of your name in the night
as I go through the lonely years
A little bit of soap
will never wash away my tears

I'll never lose the memory
of your name in the night
that I call through the lonely years
A little bit of soap
will never wash away my tears
Mmm, a little bit of soap
will never wash away my tears
FADE
Mmm, it's gonna never, never, never, uh-huh, wash away my tears
