Its so disturbing, the rumours that I hear
Its been so long since we talked and drank some beer
I'm here to tell you before you fade from view
Where is the man I knew?
You've let things get on top of you

You better clean this house, everybody's talking Clean this house, they really think its shocking Clean this house, get that shit off the table Clean this house, before you get unable Too much junk on your stairs
Too much junk everywhere
Clean it up, get it out
Do I have to spell it out?

Its disgusting
It's a matter of some concern
You're the last one to know
Always the last one to know

Tell me not to worry, tell me its OK

Tell me you're not dying, tell me to go away

But you better clean this house, everybody's talking

Clean this house, they really think its shocking

Clean this house, this place is really leaking

Clean this house, it looks like one long weekend

Too much junk on your stairs

Too much junk everywhere

Clean it up, get it out

Do I have to spell it out?

Too much junk
Too much junk
Everybody knows it but you
Everybody knows it but you

You better clean this house, everybody's talking Clean this house, they really think its shocking Clean this house, this place is overflowing Clean this house, I think your slip is showing
