

Little Boy Don't Lose Your Balls

Paul Kelly

Little boy, you look so clear around the eyes
And what they've got in store for you you may not realise
So be careful when you hear the voices call
Watch out, little boy, don't lose your balls

'Cause you never know the rules until you play
First they stroke you then they screw you
Try to take your balls away
And once they're gone they're way beyond recall
Watch out, little boy, don't lose your balls

Balls run wild
Balls may get way out of line
You may not even know you've left your balls way behind

You know money only buys you what you want
And you can't buy your balls back like you buy a pair of pants
And once they're gone you've really got fuck all
Watch out, little boy, don't lose your balls
