Father To The Fatherless

A Father to the fatherless My shelter from the storm My fountain in the wilderness My refuge and my rock High King of love, God of all grace Perfect in power and strong to save You have become my hiding place My ever faithful God

A lover to the loveless Defender of the weak The healer of all brokenness Restorer of my dreams High King of love, God of all grace

Perfect in power and strong to save You have become my all in all My comfort and my peace

My substitute, my sacrifice My perfect spotless lamb My risen Lord, my gift of life My Saviour and my friend High King of love, God of all grace Perfect in power and strong to save You have become my righteousness My glory and my song
