Born in Puerto Rico

[SALVADOR] I was born in Puerto Rico We came here when I was a child Before I reached the age of sixteen I was running with the gang and we were wild

He keeps looking but he don't recognize me. Some guy from Lexington or Park Red beans and rice from kitchen windows Supper-time and the barrio is dark.

No one knows you like I do Nobody can know your heart the way I do No one can testify to all that you've been through But I will.

[SAL & THE VAMPIRES] I was born in Puerto Rico And my blood is Taino Spanish Caribbean my soul

[SALVADOR] We came here wearing summer clothes in winter Hearts of sunshine in the cold Your family rented this apartment You'd watch the street lamps from your perch In the sacramental hour your stepfather in black Preached the fire of the Pentecostal Church No one knows you like I do Nobody can know your heart the way I do No one can testify to all that you've been through But this will.

[SAL & THE VAMPIRES] I was born in Puerto Rico Came here when I was a child.

[SALVADOR] Small change and sunlight, then I left these streets for good. My days as short as they were wild.

[CARLOS APACHE] I'm Carlos Apache

[ANGEL SOTO] Angel Soto

[FRENCHY CORDERO] Frenchy Cordero

[BABU CHARLIE CRUZ] Babu Charlie Cruz
