Kathy's Song

Paul Simon

I hear the drizzle of the rain Like a memory it falls Soft and warm continuing Tapping on my roof and walls

And from the shelter of my mind Through the window of my eyes I gaze beyond the rain drenched streets To England where my heart lies

My mind's distracted and diffused My thoughts are many miles away They lie with you when you're asleep And kiss you when you start your day

And a song I was writing is left undone I don't know why I spent the time Writing song I can't believe With words that tear and strain to rhyme

And so you see I have come to doubt All that I once held as true I stand alone without beliefs The only truth I know is you

And as I watch the drops of rain weave their weary paths and die I know that I am like the rain There but for the grace of you go I.
