Paul van Dyk

Shadows surround you
Where's the smile I long to see back on your face
What am I to do
In the end I only want to know you're safe

So precious to lose
Impossible to hold when you are worlds away
A thousand thoughts of you
Who'll protect you in the thunder rain

Maybe they'll keep an eye on earth
Promise you never will be hurt

Maybe they'll keep an eye on earth
Promise you never will be hurt

Shadows surround you
In the end I only want to know you're safe
Maybe they'll keep an eye on earth
Promise you never will be hurt
