

The Sun After Heartbreak

Paul van Dyk

It's the start of a new day
But everything feels over
Your sky a shade of grey
Longing for some colour

If you ever see the sun after heartbreak
Lift your head up
Take a breath in, oh
Though your heart may come undone
A change is coming
Just remember it's not over

Just remember
As the sun shines on your skin
Let it sink in
Just remember it's not over

It's the start of a new day
Weight is on your shoulders
You can wipe those tears away
As sunlight washes over

If you ever see the sun
Lift your head up
Take a breath in, oh
Though your heart may come undone
Just remember it's not over

If you ever see the sun after heartbreak
Just remember it's not over
