

The Strange Museum

Paul Weller

Come on in, admission's free
I won't refuse those who wanna see
I said it's strange

Bring your loved ones, those you hold dear
Bring them all, there's no restrictions here
Said it's strange

Don't look for blame as an easy escape
There's nothing on show that isn't your shame
Lord, your shame

Don't look for blame as an easy escape
There's nothing on show that isn't your shame
Lord, your shame

So come on in, it's a small price to pay
I won't refuse those who've lost their way

Come on in
