

Who Brings Joy

Paul Weller

You who brings joy
Into my world
Makes me swirl
Of such love

And all you ask
In return
Is to be loved
And love you I must

Compelled by God
To invisible force

I just want so much
To be here for you
You, my darling who
Brings so much joy

Every laugh has an echo
Every movement a feat
I humble in your complexion
So perfect, so complete

You who brings joy
Into the world

In your eyes lie a heaven
In your voice sweet caress
It is you who takes over
Whose gentle arms I rest

You who brings joy
Into the world
Makes me swirl
Of such love
Such love
