

Tears Rolling Up Our Sleeves

Paul Westerberg

People swear opposites attract
I don't care about that
Is it fiction or fact?
We're identically sad

We're got tears rolling up our sleeves
Nobody here's putting us at ease
Is it fiction or fact?
We're identically sad

Never a moon on water shone
You do here
We're got tears rolling up our sleeves
We're got tears rolling up our sleeves

Pregnant for minutes
And bored for hours
Not soon enough, he'll be ours
Is it fiction or fact?
We're identically sad

To be with him for just one night
Would you throw away
Your whole damn life?

Never a moon on waterworks
Just you and me
We're got tears rolling up our sleeves
