

Heart Full Of Rain

Paul Young

A heart full of rain
And memories
I'm feeling the strain
And missing you so desperately
I need the shelter of your arms tonight
Oh baby, I need you by my side

I don't know why
Things go the way they do
They just keep on taking me down
I can't deny I'm so into you
And lost when you're not around
If I could hold you
I could let go of the pain
But tonight I've got a heart full of rain

Unkind words blindly spoken
Faith was broken
And you walked away
From this world out love created
Hope has faded
Return your flame
To this heart full of rain

A heart full of rain
And memories
Love's not in vain
Even if you should say
You no longer need me
I'll keep believing
Until all that remains
Is your memories
And a heart full of rain
Your memory
And a heart full of rain
