

Some People

Paul Young

Some people, they know how to play the game of love
Some people, know just who to pray to up above
I know where I'm going, I'm taking it straight to the top
I know where I'm going, I don't see a reason to stop
You took my hand, put me back where I started
Showed me the way, showed me the way
You took my hand, put me back where I started
Some people seem to get the best of life really easy
Some people seemed to be put on this earth to please me
I know that I'm lucky, what you give me I'll send right back
I know I'm so lucky, this won't be a tough one to crack
You took my hand, put me back where I started
Showed me the way, showed me the way
You took my hand, put me back where I started
Some of us were living in perplexion
While others seemed to go sailing through
Some of us were getting no direction
Some of us could only think of you
Some people can give every piece of their heart to another
Some people are just as happy when they're left on their own
I know what I have now, the grass isn't greener over there
I know what I have now, and it's something that I want to share

You took my hand, put me back where I started
Showed me the way, showed me the way
You took my hand, put me back where I started
