

No Life Singed Her

Pavement

take me down from the ridge where the summer ends we'll watch the city spread out just like a jet's flame I've got a secret for you
I cut your angel in two
and soaked it with a dry sponge no life has singed her now
no life has singed her now
no life has singed her now
I can see it fade
we've got a license to live it's our only one if it expires we float up to the dust haze
I've got a secret for you
I cut your angel in two
I saw her spinning and dripping on your new dress
no life has singed her now
no life has singed her now
I can see it fade
