

So Stark (You're a Skyscraper)

Pavement

I've been waitin' here for oh so long
I've been waitin' here for oh so long

This is life
And it's flat
And it's 6
And it's 8...times

This is life
And it's flat
And it's 3
And it's 4

She's a real debutante
She'll never fall
Waves in the taxi of room-service calls

I've been with viceroys
And I've been with kings
In your emporium
It's gold inlaid rings

She can't live
Beside the spiral staircase
When the money's coming in...

White jar left of shelf above blue chair
Leave the old rugs down behind the stairs

Stunning bureaucrat
You're so fucking lost
Stark as a skyscraper
Letters embossed

Stunning bureaucrat
You're so fucking lost
Signing the letters
And cutting the costs

I can't live
Beside the spiral staircase
When the money's coming in...

Da - da - da
Ba - da - da
La - da - da
La - da - da

[etc...fades]
