

Death To Traitors

Paw

Stole her skirt
Left the band
You slashed the tires
On our van

You're the kind of person that I would go to jail for
The kind of things I hate, well, other people live for
Traitor is a game that I would never play
Traitor is a name that I would never have
You won't do this again
You won't do this again
You won't do this again
You won't do this again

Death to traitors
Yeah, death to every single one
Death to traitors
It hurts to be let down
Death to traitors
Yeah, kill the ones you know
Death to traitors
You won't let me down

Stood up, instead
You raped her out on highway 40
You picked a fight
He broke your nose
He stained your shirt

You're the kind of person, that I would go to jail for
The kind of things I hate, well, other people live for
Traitor is a game that I would never play
Traitor is a name that I would never have
You won't do this again
You won't do this again
You won't do this again
You won't do this again

Death to traitors
Death to every single one
Death to traitors
It hurts to be let down
Death to traitors
Yeah, kill the ones you know
Death to traitors
You won't let me down again

We took you in
Made you part of our family
You took our trust
And made it part of your credentials
The world would be better off without you
So answer, friend, a simple question
Don't you know who we are?
That's the way of the world
You're gonna need us again

Well, that's the way of the world

Et tu, brute.
Have you misplaced your knife?
Judas, what's this?
A friendly kiss?

Death To Traitors
Death to traitors
Death to traitors
Kill the ones you know
Death to traitors
Never been one, never be one
Hurts to be let down
Never been one, never be one
Death to traitors
Yeah, death to every single one
Death to traitors
