

Another Day Comes

Pay money To my Pain

Oooohh, another day comes
My past breaks into my memory
and it's coming again
With this smells it wakes me up so slow.
Another day comes.
The same folder lives in my life.
It takes me again to where I will still be.
I'm trying to fight for me.
For my right.
For my life!
Ahhhhhh!
As long as you are here.
I will sing!
Ahhhhhh!
As long as you stand next to me.
I will sing for you! (Sing for you)

Remember where you came from
Will keep you real it seems so clear
Why was i afraid to go back
To that cold world and i won't forget save me, music
kill me, i say
raise me, my mind squirms into me
Why do I watch this life
When I don't take time to fill my mind
Ahhhhh!
As long as you are here!
I will sing!
Ahhhhh!
As long as you stand next to me.
I will sing this forever.

Ahhhhh!
As long as you are here!
I will sing!
Ahhhhh!
As long as you stand next to me.
I will sing for you!
The music takes me... breaks me...
As another day comes.
The music brings me to a brand new world.
The music takes me... breaks me...
As another day comes.
The music brings me to a brand day...
