

Unforgettable Past

Pay money To my Pain

Nothings got my back you've got my headspining around down
When I stop to see into your world
It's stuck in the grid

Can't you see? You see this world is yours
You've never had this feeling
I know you wanna change your life
Because I know this world is not enough
Cuz I don't wanna see
I only wanna feel that far from the fear

Nothings got my back I've lost my sorrow and my path
I can't trust you You only think of yourself so selfish

All you guys used to hate each other
But now you've become friends
I don't understand what's your real intention
You used to called each other names
It's over and over
It's funny cuz I don't belong any more

Can't you see? You see this world is yours
You've never had this feeling
I know you wanna change your life
Because I know this world is not enough
Cuz I don't wanna see
I only wanna feel that far from the fear
