

Lovers After All

Peabo Bryson

When I look deep into your eyes
That's when I know I'm living
For every moment of our lives
We should be forgiving, ohh

We'll hold each other when we cry
Even if we fall somehow
We'll be lovers after all

In time, we'll learn to understand
The meaning of together, my love
If we keep walking hand in hand
Then nothing else will matter

There will be no need to hide
Feelings that we keep inside

We'll hold each other when we cry
Even if we fall somehow
We'll be lovers after all

We'll hold each other when we cry
Even if we fall somehow
We'll be lovers after all

Lovers, lovers after all
We're still lovers
Lovers, oh, lovers
Lovers after all
