

You Lied

Peach

Setting sun can't shine now you're gone,
Inside sleeping, my heart beating,
You know that you tried to hide it,
Shouldn't you have said what you meant?

Time heals, time congeals around you,
Painless hours of endless motion,
Understanding's not demanding,
You can't hide what you feel inside.

Setting sun can't shine now you're gone,
Inside sleeping, my heart beating,
You know that you tried to hide it,
Shouldn't you have said what you meant?

You lied.
