

Chloe Dancer

Pearl Jam

Chloe don't know better,
Chloe's just like me, only beautiful.
A couple of years difference,
But those lasses never learn, and you know.

Chloe danced the tables in the French Quarter,
She's always been given so I can't always make her laugh.
But I'm proud to say and I won't forget
The time spent laying by her side,
The time spent laying by her side.

And dreams like this must die,
A dream like this must die
And dreams like this must...
