

Metal Heart

Pedro the Lion

Losing a star without a sky
Losing the reasons why
You're losing the calling you've been faking
And I'm not kidding

It's damned if you don't and it's damned if you do
Be true because they'll lock you up in a sad, sad zoo
Oh hidy, hidy, hidy, what are you trying to prove?
By hidy, hidy, hiding you're not worth a thing

Sew your fortunes on a string and hold them up to light
Blue smoke will take a very violent flight
And you will be changed and everything
And you'll be in a very sad, sad zoo

I once was lost but now I'm found
Was blind but now I see you
How selfish of you
To believe in the meaning of all the bad dreaming

Metal heart, you're not hiding
Metal heart, you're not worth a thing
Metal heart, you're not hiding
Metal heart, you're not worth a thing
