

Promise

Pedro the Lion

i'll take something to believe something with long sleeves cause it's unpredictable now jesus said he'd fill my needs but my heart still bleeds he's just noy physical now why can't i see if i look up and the sky's not there is there any reason that i should be scared when a promise is a promise i know now we've established lack of sight maybe vision's the right word for what i need cause i can't see with human eyes lord knows i've tried to follow where he leads from what i've seen so far i can't believe my eyes and what a nice suprise
