

The Bells

Pedro the Lion

hunger drives me
it's got me by the reigns i let it wreck me
time and time again

i decided to never ride again
i don't know
what happened

dad i broke my promise to you if you're wondering where i've been i thought i knew what i was doing but i was wrong again
i understand son

the fairer gender
they always turn my head
from sheer embarrassment
i'm nearly dead
