

Some Cats Know

Peggy Lee

The old prospectors nose for gold the sailor who can read the sky the gamblers sense of when to fold the trick to making apple pie these mysteries one cannot explain this old black art so queer and quaint like making love, or making rain either you got it,
or
you
aint

Some cats know
you can tell by the touchin they don't come on huffin and puffin and grabbin and clutchin
some cats know
how to take it nice and slow
but if a cat don't know
a cat don't know

how to stir up the feelin they keep foolin round till they're half way to the celin
some cats know
how to make the honey flow

some cats know just where it's at they are not like some others I would ruther one like that If I had my druthers

Some cats know
how to play nice and pretty nice and soft and soon you're off to good time city
some cats know

he just don't know
