

I Read It In The Paper

Peggy Sue

I read it in the paper,
The paper said the times had changed
But if you only lose an hour
Or if you only gain an hour it feels the same
If you only lose an hour,
If you only lose an hour,
You'd just be late

And if you gain an hour,
Then you only gain another hour to wait

I read it in the paper,
The paper said the times had changed
But if you only lose an hour
Or if you only gain an hour it feels the same

I know I'll never have more
Than what you gave
I know I'll never have more
Than I gave away

If you try to make it black and white
You try and make it black and white
You lose all of the colour from the page

If you try to make it black and white
You try and make it black and white
You lose the colour and end up grey

So I had to blow it all
I had to blow it all
I had to give it all away
