

I wear myself too thin
Can't help myself this time
I'm on the outside looking in
Can't see myself this time

Don't wanna go
There's nothing left for me
It's 1am
It's 2am
It's 4 in the morning

Did I think she'd be here?
Did I fool myself again?
I think I did
I think I fooled myself again
Again again again
I think I fooled myself again

If I spend just one
Just one more night
Just one more night
Being mediocre
Just one more night
Just one more night
Then I'll scream at the top of my lungs
Just one more night
Just one more night
Being mediocre
Just one more night
Just one more night
Then I'll scream at the top of my lungs
But it falls on deaf ears

I wear myself too thin
Can't help myself this time
I'm on the outside looking in
Can't see my self this time

Don't wanna go
Don't wanna go
Don't wanna drive back home
It's 1am
It's 2am
It's 4 in the morning

Did I think she'd be here?
Did I fool myself again?
I think I did
I think I fooled myself again
Again again again
I fooled myself again

If I spend just one
Just one more night
Just one more night

Being mediocre
Just one more night
Just one more night
Well I'll scream at the top of my lungs
Just one more night
Just one more night
Being mediocre
Just one more night
Just one more night
Well I'll scream at the top of my lungs

I scream out loud
But no one hears a sound
