Oh Divineo

Pendragon

Lead me, lead me Take me down, take me down Cry, don't cry Long standing hypocrites you burn the candle at both ends Reality, reflection in my eye Tranquillity a virtue in itself Please give it to me We need compassion Of long standing nation A book overdue, of lasting relation

Lead me, lead me Cry, don't cry Trace your deism and take it to the roots Humpty Dumpty just fell down He's crashing through the roof Oh Divineo

Where does the fire burn now? Where does the fire burn now? Where does the fire burn?
